WELCOME TO THE CORGI JANUARY TO APRIL 2022 RANGE!

WE'RE PLEASED TO PRESENT THE LATEST CORGI product arrivals and announcements, due in the first four months of 2022. You might notice a change of style in this latest catalogue. Throughout 2021 Corgi saw some big changes behind the scenes, and with that came a shift in our way of thinking in bringing our latest releases to you. The world has been moving around us swiftly these past few years, and we at Corgi have been trying our best to weather these shifts. Unfortunately, this has often meant unavoidable delays to delivering our products in good time, and so the catalogue you hold in your hands is our way of keeping you more accurately informed to the best of our ability.

An additional part of our mandate is not to announce newly tooled products for pre-order too far in advance when release dates are subject to change so far down the road. We are collectors too, and we know there is nothing more disappointing than a delay when you have been anticipating something for so long. A great amount of effort and work is spent perfecting our new products, and ultimately, we want to present them to you in the best way possible when they're ready to be shown off. That said, we'll still be talking in the pages ahead about what we're working on ahead of pre-orders commencing later this year. Our research trips have taken us to the hallowed Ford Heritage Centre in Dagenham, the headquarters of Triumph Motorcycles on a special mission worthy of 007, and we've even taken to the skies thanks to the team at the Biggin Hill Heritage Hanger to enable us to produce a die-cast Spitfire unlike any other.

We hope you enjoy this preview of what is coming soon, and we'll be keeping you updated with two more Corgi Catalogues to come, featuring the products arriving in May to August, and September to December. In addition, don't forget to check out the Die-cast Diaries blog on www.corgi.co.uk, moving to a twice monthly update pattern in 2022 to bring you the latest news on our product development throughout the year.

The Aviation Archive range features high quality die-cast aircraft models produced in both 1:72 and 1:48 scales. Newly designed packaging styles highlight each model's place in real-world history, enabling collectors both new and old to easily identify areas of interest while expressing the sheer span and scope of the aviation world. Each aircraft comes with a display stand and many have optional parts enabling the model to be posed either in flight or stationary with the undercarriage down.

For 2022, we're delighted to announce a brace of new tooling projects in the range. In addition to our previously announced 1:48 scale Eurofighter Typhoon FGR4, we are hard at work on the next release in the larger scale jet series: a 1:48 scale BAE Harrier II GR5/7/9. In 1:72 scale, we are creating not one but two new Supermarine Spitfire models – the Spitfire MkIX, and the Spitfire T9. The latter has been produced in co-operation with the team at the Biggin Hill Heritage Hanger and marks a small bit of history – the first Spitfire model created by Corgi from a LIDAR scan of an actual airframe, in this case the beautiful TE308 'Grey Nurse' that will be the subject of the first release.

Vanguards™

The history of Corgi is built on model cars, and the Vanguards range continues that legacy today. A range of 1:43 scale model cars that span the decades, the backstory, livery, special features and statistics of every Vanguard model are meticulously researched to bring the most accurate replicas to the market. Every model is secured to a removable display plinth and presented in a high quality Perspex display box, with each release including a limited edition numbered certificate which details the full fascinating history of the vehicle concerned.

In 2022, the ever popular collection of Ford vehicles expands in the Vanguard range, with four new models in development alongside our previous announcements. Coming first is a new Ford Cortina Mk5, LIDAR scanned from the final vehicle to roll off of the production line and held in pristine condition at the Ford Heritage Centre in Dagenham. Also coming are new models that will bring the Vanguards range bang up to date – the Ford Focus Mk3, the Ford Transit Custom, and the Ford Ranger Raptor.

This collection will be housed in special presentation packaging

Gifts

Spanning the realms of film and television, video games, and other famous brands, the Corgi Gifting range has something for everyone! We are continuing our long standing relationship with the world of James Bond through our entry into the 1:12 scale die-cast motorcycle model market with our newly tooled Triumph Scrambler 1200, as seen in death defying action during the thrilling opening sequence of 007's latest adventure, No Time To Die. Featuring premium detailing and working parts, this release is in development for release later this year.

In addition, we are thrilled to announce a new licensing partnership with Aardman Animations for 2022 and beyond to produce die-cast vehicles and models from the much loved Wallace and Gromit film series. The first models are due later this year, and will feature something very special – a vehicle designed exclusively for Corgi by the team at Aardman!
